E7   A7    D    A7

[Verse]
D                  F#7       B7
Now they make new movies in old black and white
E7                         A7
With happy endings, where nobody fights
   D               F#7           B7
So if you find yourself in that nostalgic rage
       E7                A7
Honey, jump right up and show your age...

[Chorus]
  D            F#7         B7
I wish I had a pencil thin moustache
E7         A7      D
The Boston Blackie kind
  D         F#7      B7
A two toned Ricky Ricardo jacket
       E7                     A7
And an autographed picture of Andy Devine

D                D7
I remember bein' buck-toothed and skinny
G                      Bb
Writin' fan letters to Sky's niece Penny
     D            F#7         B7
Oh I wish I had a pencil thin moustache
     E7                 A7        D
Then I could solve some mysteries too
```

```
Yeah, but now I'm gettin' old, don't wear underwear
  E7                        A7
I don't go to church and I don't cut my hair

         E7          A7      D
Just the way that it used to be

[Chorus]
             D            F#7         B7
That's why I wish I had a pencil thin moustache
E7         A7      D
The Boston Blackie kind
  D         F#7     B7
A two toned Ricky Ricardo jacket
       E7                      A7
And an autographed picture of Andy Devine

D                        D7
Oh, I could be anyone I wanted to be
      G                        Bb
Maybe suave Errol Flynn or the Sheik of Araby
     D          F#7         B7
If I only had a pencil thin moustache
     E7              A7       D
Then I could do some cruisin' too
